

EUROPEUM Institute for European Policy and Friedrich Ebert Stiftung

Have the pleasure of inviting you to the International conference

“Euro in Central Europe: experience and perspectives”

Date: 29 March 2010

Venue:

National Technical Library
Technická st., Prague 6
(close to Metro station Dejvická)

Please, confirm your participation at registrace@fesprag.cz by 25 March 2010.

Media partner:

The conference will be held in Czech and English with simultaneous interpretation.

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

12:30

Registration and refreshments

13:00

Welcoming remarks

Mr Erfried Adam, Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung Prag
Mr David Král, EUROPEUM Institute for European Policy

13:15 – 14:45

Keynote panel

Chair: Mr Michal Mejstřík, Charles University in Prague

Mr Ewald Nowotny, governor, Austrian National Bank
Mr Ivan Šramko, former governor, National Bank of Slovakia
Mr Zdeněk Tůma, governor, Czech National Bank

14:45

Coffee break

15:00 – 16:30

Panel I: Euro in times of crisis

Chair: Mr Jan Mládek, Fontes Rerum

Ms Cinzia Alcidi, Center for European Policy Studies
Mr Jaromír Drábek, International Chamber of Commerce Czech
Republic
Mr Luděk Niedermayer, Deloitte Czech Republic

16:30

Coffee break

16:45 – 18:15

Panel II: Euro adoption in Central Europe – country perspectives

Chair: Mr Oldřich Dědek, National Coordinator for Euro Adoption in the Czech Republic

Mr Igor Barát, Poštová banka
Mr Jan Bureš, ČSOB
Mr Zoltán Pogátsa, University of Western Hungary
Mr Przemysław Wozniak, CASE - Center for Social and Economic Research

18:15

Concluding remarks

18:30

Glass of wine