

INTERNSHIP OFFER IN BRUSSELS

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

EUROPEUM Institute for European Policy is looking for the Brussels office intern for the fall/winter period!

WHO ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

- University students pursuing a master's degree or final year of a bachelor's, or young graduates
- Academic background in international relations, European studies, political science, or economics
- Fluent in English (written and oral); knowledge of Czech, French, or German is an asset
- Experience in organizing public events welcomed
- Strong research, analytical, and writing skills
- Ability to quickly familiarize yourself with new topics
- Experience with graphics and/or design is an advantage

WHAT DO WE OFFER?

- A 3-6 month internship in a small team in a dynamic international environment
- Involvement in activities related to EU policy, with a focus on the Czech Republic/Central Europe
- Participation in organizing events, monitoring EU policies, writing communication materials, and attending conferences
- Working in our Brussels office (20-30 hours/week)
- The internship does not offer financial remuneration; however, candidates may be eligible for support through Erasmus+.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

- Event coordination: Help organize roundtables and conferences with experts and policymakers
- Networking: Participate in meetings with researchers and alumni now working in Brussels
- Policy monitoring: Gain insights into EU dynamics, committee work, and dialogues
- Administrative activities: Help with contact management, meeting logistics, and reporting
- Communication: Contribute to newsletters and publish at least one blog post

If interested, please send your CV and a short motivation letter to brussels@europeum.org by July 12, 2026.

Interviews will be held in person or virtually by end of July.
